GENERAL PLAN
FOR USE OF PROJECT LAND AND WATER AREAS FOR WILDLIFE
CONSERVATION AND MANAGEMENT--THE DALLES DAM, COLUMBIA RIVER, WASHINGTON AND OREGON

WHEREAS certain lands in the States of Washington and Oregon have been acquired by the Department of the Army for The Dalles Dam project, under authority of Public Law 516, 81st Congress, 2nd Session, approved May 17, 1950 and

WHEREAS the Fish and Wildlife Coordination Act (48 Stat. 401 as amended; 16 U.S.C. 661 et seq.) provides in Section 3 thereof that ". . . whenever the waters of any stream or other body of water are impounded, diverted, the channel deepened, or the stream or other body of water otherwise controlled or modified for any purpose whatever, including navigation and drainage, by any department or agency of the United States, adequate provision, consistent with the primary purposes of such impoundment, diversion, or other control, shall be made for the use thereof, together with any areas of land, water or interests therein, acquired or administered by a Federal agency in connection therewith, for the conservation, maintenance, and management of wildlife resources thereof, and its habitat thereon, including the development and improvement of such wildlife resources pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 of this Act.

"(b) The use of such waters, land, or interests therein for wildlife conservation purposes shall be in accordance with general plans approved jointly (1) by the head of the particular department or agency exercising primary administration in each instance, (2) by the Secretary of the Interior, and (3) by the head of the agency exercising the administration of the wildlife resources of the particular State wherein the waters and areas lie. Such waters and other interests shall be made available, without cost for administration, by such State agency, if the management of the properties relate to the conservation of wildlife other than migratory birds, or by the Secretary of the Interior, for administration in such manner as he may deem advisable, where the particular properties have value in carrying out the national migratory bird management program:"

WHEREAS the Secretary of the Interior finds that said lands and waters of The Dalles project area are not of particular value in carrying out the national migratory bird management program, and

WHEREAS the State of Washington Department of Game finds that certain land and water areas of the Dalles project area, situated in Klickitat County, have considerable value in the conservation and management of fish and wildlife resources in the State of Washington, and

WHEREAS the Oregon State Game Commission finds that certain lands and waters of The Dalles project area situated in Wasco and Sherman counties have considerable value in conservation and management of fish and wildlife resources in the State of Oregon.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is agreed by the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Interior, and the Director of the State of Washington Department of Game and Director of the Oregon State Game Commission, as follows:

The areas delimited in Exhibit A as 'Proposed Fish and Wildlife Management Areas' be made available by the Secretary of the Army to the Oregon State Game Commission or Washington Department of Game in accordance with subsequent instruments to be issued by the Secretary of the Army, covering the necessary details of Agreement.
